

I have been ranching for more than 30 years and have had "Farm Plated Trucks" the entire time.

I feel there is no value in changing or removing the farm plated exemption as it is written at the present time.

I own two farm plated trucks. I keep them in excellent condition. Approximately 80% of my driving is on private or rural roads. My total annual mileage on both trucks is less than 2,500 miles.